A Red Cross blood drive is scheduled for September at the HTC in cooperation with Carey Hughes Homes.

Discussions: It was discussed that the tennis court lights should be turned off at 10:00 pm to comply with Beaverton City Code. All present agreed with this change and the pickle ball players in attendance also agreed to wait until 7:00 am to begin play as per city code. The Board and neighbors present discussed the possibility of a Pickle Ball tournament taking place on Labor Day and it was agreed this could happen.

The Board heard arguments to raise the number of free guest passes in 2024. Many homeowners expressed the desire to the management to have more free guests. The board reviewed the income vs cost analysis and decided to leave the free passes at the current number of 5 and not make any changes.

Motions:

Director Dave Yoerger motioned to add a line item to the budget for 2 additional Pickle Ball nets as well as 2 replacement nets. Director Mirkes seconds. All Vote Yes resulting in a 5-0 approval.
